

SAMPLE AGREEMENT

Literary Collectibles™

Master Production, Licensing & Royalty Agreement

This document is provided for informational purposes only.

This sample illustrates the standard agreement generally used by Literary Collectibles™ for qualifying projects. Terms may be revised over time or supplemented by a Project Schedule prepared for an individual project. No contractual relationship is created until an agreement has been executed by all parties.

Version: 1.0

Status: SAMPLE – NOT EXECUTED

Agreement Highlights

- One-time project setup fee (unless otherwise agreed).
- Client retains ownership of underlying copyrights and intellectual property.
- Literary Collectibles receives a limited license to produce approved collectibles.
- Royalties: 75% Client / 25% Literary Collectibles based on Net Revenue.
- Quarterly royalty accounting with a $50 minimum payout threshold.
- One complimentary set of each approved item.
- Client may purchase additional inventory at 50% off established retail pricing.
- Limited production runs; no reprints of the same registered edition.
- Permanent Registry numbers that are never duplicated or reused.
- Client reviews factual content before production; Literary Collectibles retains final design and production authority.
- Remaining inventory may continue to be sold after termination under the agreement.

Note: The executed agreement also includes detailed provisions covering licensing, registry, approvals, marketing rights, future products, warranties, indemnification, termination, resale, dispute resolution, and project schedules.

To request the complete agreement for your project, contact:

LiteraryCollectibles@outlook.com